4. Encourage Restorative Justice

- Community service introduced for petty crimes to reduce prison crowding.

Beneficiary: Teaching, Non-Teaching and Students

Program organizing committee: NSS cell DBCOP

Program Report:

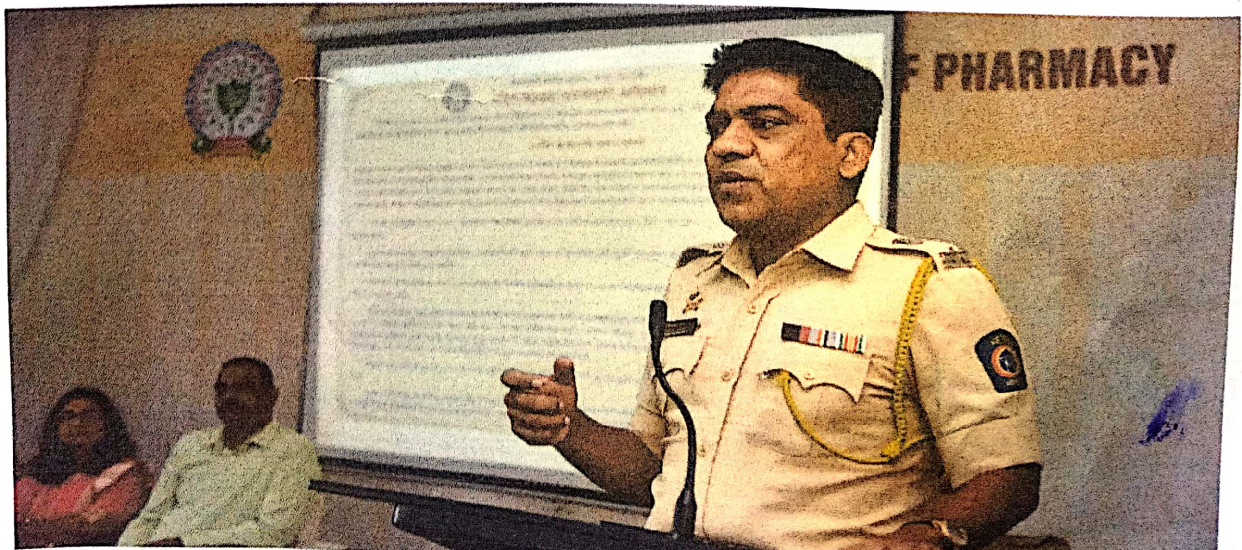

An interactive awareness session on Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) 2023 was conducted by Shri Vijaykant Sagar, Deputy Commissioner of Police (Zone 4, Nagpur). The session aimed to educate students, faculty, and legal professionals about the key reforms introduced under the new criminal laws replacing the Indian Penal Code (IPC), 1860. Shri Sagar explained critical changes such as the removal of sedition, stricter punishments for mob lynching, mandatory digital FIRs, and the introduction of community service for petty crimes.

Using real-world case studies, he highlighted how BNS enhances victim rights, ensures faster justice delivery, and incorporates modern digital evidence protocols. The session also included a Q&A round, where participants discussed practical challenges in implementation, police accountability, and forensic evidence requirements. The programme successfully deepened awareness about India's evolving criminal justice system while encouraging students to engage in legal research and advocacy.
