Program Report:

Today, health care professionals around the world are celebrating World Pharmacists Day, an annual event aimed at recognizing the crucial role pharmacists play in enhancing health care systems and improving patient outcomes. The theme for this year's celebration, "Pharmacist: Meeting Global health needs" emphasizes collaboration and the pharmacist's vital contribution to public health.

The World Pharmacists Day celebration featured esteemed guests, including Shri Viraj Paunikar, Joint Commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration, Nagpur, who highlighted the importance of regulatory support in enhancing pharmacy practices. Shri Dhananjay Joshi, Vice President of the Maharashtra State Pharmacy Council (MSPC), Mumbai, emphasized the need for continuous professional development in the pharmacy sector. Shri Suresh Jinturkar, Senior Pharmacist from Deepti Pharmaceuticals, Nagpur, shared insights on industry challenges and the evolving role of pharmacists in patient care. Shri Vijay Agrawal, a Senior Community Pharmacist, discussed the critical contributions of community pharmacists in promoting public health. Additionally, Mr. Rajiv Ukhare, President, NDCDA, Nagpur speech on roles & responsibilities of current pharmacist, Sonali Padole, Executive Member of MSPC Mumbai, underscored the significance of collaboration among pharmacy professionals to ensure optimal health outcomes for the community. Together, these leaders inspired attendees to recognize the invaluable role pharmacists play in the health care system.

In celebration of World Pharmacists Day, a tree plantation event was held, followed by a lively pharmacist rally to raise awareness about the vital role of pharmacists in society. Local pharmacists and community members planted trees in a nearby park, symbolizing their commitment to a healthier environment. The rally featured banners highlighting pharmacists' contributions to health care, with speakers including Shri Viraj Paunikar, Joint Commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration, and Shri Dhananjay Joshi, Vice President of MSPC, emphasizing the importance of pharmacists as accessible health care providers.

The event concluded with a call to action for the community to recognize and engage with pharmacists, reinforcing their essential role in promoting public health.
